Theatre of a Good Heart

03-07.07

The Theatre of a Good Heart has been speaking joyfully and cheerfully about wise and beautiful things for years. The theatre's mission - apart from having fun - is above all to leave valuable models of social behaviour in the hearts of the youngest. Authentic scripts, songs, and colourful sets add to the charm of the whole performance. The play takes place on a mixed set - on stage, in addition to costumed actors, there are beautiful puppets made using various techniques.

Our preschoolers will have the opportunity to see the play entitled Janosik and the Good Shepherd. Its plot is based on the legend of a student robber stealing from the rich and giving to the poor. Janosik's meeting with the Good Shepherd and his conversations with the friendly sheep make Janosik transform himself. He discovers that no one can be robbed and people should be helped.
